

THE MANTINI SISTERS BIOGRAPHY

Described as “Canada’s contribution to the great female trios”, and with a career spanning nearly three decades, The Mantini Sisters (Sandra, Barbara & Ann) continue to win the hearts of music lovers of all ages. Their concerts feature smooth harmonious vocals that pay tribute to the great singers of our time and popular songs from Swing, Jazz, Pop, Broadway and Country.

Together the “Sisters” have co-written and produced their critically acclaimed productions of “Moments to Remember”, “The Ladies of Broadway”, “Home for the Holidays”, “The Mantini Sisters Christmas!” and “Pretty World”. They have also produced three full length CD’s.

The Mantini Sisters have shared the stage with some of Canada’s best artists, musicians and Symphony Orchestras and continue to perform for concert series, outdoor music festivals, private, corporate and special events.

They are also proud recipients of the Niagara Music Awards for “Best Theatrical Performance”, and Drayton Entertainment’s “Terry Doyle Memorial Award” for their artistic contribution during the theatre company’s first 25 years.
